

WHO WE ARE

THE CONNECTICUT SPORTS MANAGEMENT GROUP INC.

(CSMG.org) is a 501(c)(3) not for profit corporation Dedicated to managing the two largest amateur, multi-sport, Olympic-style sporting events in Connecticut: The Nutmeg State Games and the CT Masters' Games - (Formerly the CT Senior Games).

The Nutmeg State Games (NutmegStateGames.org) is recognized by the U.S Olympic Committee and by The National Congress of State Games as the Official State Games of CT and celebrates 31 years of "Helping Good Kids Make Good Choices" in 2019. The Connecticut Masters' Games (CTMastersGames.org) is recognized by the U.S. Olympic committee and the National Association of Senior Games as the Official Senior Games of CT. The Masters' Games, now in its 40th year, was taken over by CSMG in 2002 and since that time has grown exponentially. Through the venue of competitive sports, we seek to contribute positively to the physical, mental and emotional growth of our athletes.

The Connecticut Sports Management Group Inc. believes that participation in athletics provides opportunities to develop leadership qualities such as hard work, self-confidence and mental and physical toughness. We also believe competitive athletics lays the foundation for positive lifelong habits that contribute to a healthy life style and teaches team work, sportsmanship and respect for others. The "Games" include participants from all religious, racial and socio- economic backgrounds and opponents are not determined by demographics. We encourage the camaraderie that develops through the common bond of athletics, and appreciation for the Olympic spirit that make the "Games" successful!

KEYNOTE: James "Jim" Calhoun

was born in Braintree, MA, is a graduate of Braintree High School and American International College in Springfield. He began his coaching career at Old Lyme High School in CT, continued at both Westport and Dedham High in MA before becoming the head coach at Northeastern University in 1972. He accepted the job at UConn in 1986.

After retiring from coaching in 2012, three-time National Champion and Basketball Hall of Famer Jim Calhoun has made his return to Connecticut basketball in 2018, becoming the first-ever head men's basketball coach at the University of Saint Joseph (USJ). Calhoun carries the passion of his filled career into every Blue Jay practice, in hopes of taking this newly Co-Ed Division III program to the top.

In 14 seasons at Northeastern led NU from the Division II ranks to one of the nation's top Division I mid-major programs, making the NCAA Tournament five times. 26 seasons at Connecticut, transformed UConn from a regional contender to a three-time national champion. In the BIG EAST Conference, the Huskies won a record seven BIG EAST Tournament championships, and 10 regular-season league titles.

Calhoun was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2005, and is a member of the 2006 Founding Class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame. Calhoun's head coach record in 40 years stands at 873-380 which ranks sixth on the all-time Division I men's basketball wins list, his 1,253 games coached is third all-time. His numerous awards include the prestigious John R. Wooden "Legends of Coaching" Award in 2005, and he was the first BIG EAST coach to win the conference's Coach of the Year award four times.

Calhoun and his wife of 52 years, Pat, live in Pomfret, CT. They have two sons that are also married, one grandson and five granddaughters.
